BRIDGES.

1870, c. 415 entitled an act for the better protection of the bridge over Sassafras river, from Fredericktown, in Cecil county, to Georgetown, in Kent county, enacts:

1. That all persons passing over the Sassafras river bridge on horseback, in carriages, carts, wagons, sleighs, or other vehicles, shall be required to put their horses in a walk, otherwise to be fined five dollars for each and every offence; it shall be the duty of the bridge tender to see to the enforcement of this act; any justice of the peace for either Cecil county or Kent county, in which any party violating the above provisions may be found, shall have jurisdiction in the matter; said penalty to be recovered in the name of the county commissioners of said counties, in an action for debt.

2. That all captains, owners, masters and sailors of vessels, going through the draw of said bridge, shall be required to lower and to take in as much sail as shall be necessary to prevent damage by carelessness before going through the same, and at a sufficient distance therefrom, to remove liability of injury or damage to said drawbridge by the headway of such vessels, and shall use, in the management of said vessels, reasonable care to prevent injury.
